

Tony T Nguyen has been instructing percussion for seven years and have been composing music since high school. He graduated from Garden Grove High School. He went to Fullerton College as a Music Composition Major then transferred to California Polytechnic University of Pomona for Music Composition and Music Business. He currently is working on his Bachelors for Interactive Media Design at The Art Institute of California, Orange County.

Tony currently works at a few different high schools. At Brea Olinda High School, he has been fortunate to be the Percussion Instructor, Visual Designer, and Music Composer/arranger. At La Quinta High School, he is the Percussion Caption Head and this year is writing a number for them. At Garden Grove High School, he is the Percussion Instructor. At San Marino High School, he is the Percussion Instructor and just recently has been asked to be the Assistant Band Director. Tony also is writing the field show music for the 2006 season.

Tony also founded an Independent Indoor Drumline, Incognito Drumline. They had their debut this season and will continue their success with two indoor drumlines.

Incognito is a branch of The Music Life, which is a Non Profit Organization which helps to keep music alive in the communities. The Music Life Foundation is in it's early stages but will be public next year.
