

Emily is thrilled to be a part of the Brea Olinda Wildcat Entertainment Corps' staff for the 2011 fall season. Originally from Palatine, IL (just outside of Chicago), Emily graduated in May 2009 from Butler University in Indianapolis, IN with a degree in Music Education. During the 2009-2010 school year, Emily taught elementary school general music to fifth and sixth graders in Westfield, IN. She also worked with the BOA Grand National Finalist Ben Davis Marching Giants during her time in Indiana, as a visual tech for both marching band and winter percussion.

As a marching member in drum corps, Emily spent two seasons with Pioneer Drum and Bugle Corps from Milwaukee, WI (2003-2004) and marched for five years with the Phantom Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps from Rockford, Illinois (2005-2009). Emily aged-out of drum corps in 2009, in addition to serving as Phantom Regiment's Horn Sergeant that summer. She has spent the past two summers as the mellophone tech for The Academy Drum and Bugle Corps from Tempe, AZ.
